Stephanie Lovi interviewed on e-radio Art Rocks!

2 August 2006 – San Diego, Calif. Lovi Love Designs, a woman-owned jewelry design company offering handmade accessories for women and men, was invited to e-radio Art Rocks to tell one of the largest internet radio audiences just how her company got started and what women can look forward to when creating their fashion statement.

The owner of the company, Ms. Stephanie Lovi, took Art Rocks hosts Ally Bling Bling and Philly Joe Swendoza on a journey of her business surprisingly began as a hobby to pass the time after undergoing chemotherapy and surgery for breast cancer. The supposed hobby grew to a daily and nearly constant activity that began taking too much time away from her family. Ms. Lovi took a leap of faith in 2003 and began which is now a successful jewelry design company with both a regional and internet presence.

Lovi Love is a jewelry collection designed by Ms. Lovi which combines sterling silver with a variety of pearls and semi-precious as well as natural stones such as turquoise, abalone, quartz, jade, baroque pearls, amethyst and chalcedony. In addition, the collection sports vintage buttons, charms, distinctive clasps and above all, a unique wire-wrapped piece found no where else.

More insights into Ms. Lovi, her growing jewelry collections and expanding regional events can be found at www.lovilove.com. The Art Rocks interview can be accessed under the company's press page or directly at <http://wsradio.com/wsradio-player.cfm/type/windows/show/Art-Rocks!/segment/6023.html>.
